The Mystery of Christ

READ EPHESIANS 3:4-6

Bible Thought: "I have been crucified with Christ; it is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me; and the life I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me" (Galatians 2:20).

PAUL here is making known the "mystery of Christ" and yet in many ways the great love and plan of God still seem a mystery to us. We want it all explained in down-to-earth terms, and we wish more was told to us in his Word. Yet God has made known all that we need to know about him. He wants us to understand him as far as is humanly possible. Probably the greatest mystery is "Christ in us." It is very hard to understand how this can be when we fail him so often and turn our backs on him. His grace, however, can overcome our weaknesses and save us in spite of ourselves.

This great secret of God is that the love and mercy and grace of God are not meant for just a certain few, but for everyone. Christ broke down all barriers. It is in fact, even greater news for those of us who are "uncircumcised" and are the least worthy. He has brought us together to share his salvation and to take the good news to all the earth—to say that God is their friend, who has provided a way of reconciliation with him through Christ. And reconciliation with God means also reconciliation with man.

Hymn: "I Know Not Why God's Wondrous Grace."

Father, help us to understand the mystery of Christ and help us to surrender every bit of our lives to him fully. In Jesus' name. Amen.

—STEPHEN LONG

LEVIS AND LEATHER

Not a tribe of the children of Israel but the kind you wear.

Sunday July 25th at the Evening Service will be Levis and Leather Night at MCC. Every other group has had their day, so today is our day, and this is our service.

We contend that God loves us too and many in our group carry the love of God also. Come and join us and let the Lord Bless you real real good. Be prepared for a service like you haven't been in before.

QUESTION: How many people does it take to man our crisis line 24 hrs a day seven days a week??????? Check with C. I. C. for the answer.

ROCK OPERA: JESUS CHRIST SUPERSTAR

The new rock opera, Jesus Christ, Superstar, choreographed and directed by William Cramer will be performed on the following August dates:

At the St. Agnes Catholic Church on August 15th & 20th.

At the Holy Name Catholic Church on August 21st & 25th.

On August 29th, they will present this wonderful event at MCC - Los Angeles! There will be auditions for the 12 Apostles roles immediately following services Sunday August 25. You must be able to sing and move well.

In my opinion, Jesus Christ Superstar is a masterpiece. The message received from this dynamic and overpowering musical was most impressive and soul stirring for me. I knew the moment I heard the complete story on record that it had to be presented, original and unique before the public. As a result, I wrote a letter to its authors and received approval to do it as a Church benefit with no newspaper or national publicity. This made me very happy and so I've set out to put the show together. This will be my first major production that I have choreographed and directed.

I hope from this experience that I do the job pleasing to God - since this is my primary purpose. I will be leaving Los Angeles for San Francisco on August 30th to begin my studies for the priesthood, in the Claretian Order. My goal is to be a priest and devote and dedicate my life to working in His Vineyard using my talents as a singer, dancer and teacher. I aim to put my best foot forward in accomplishing this goal and thank you all for your participation in helping me weave together a beautiful show. I couldn't have done it without the help of such beautiful people that flock and give themselves as you do at MCC.

A VIEW FROM THE PEW

Our regular reporter on The View from the Pew column, Al Correa, missed Sunday Services so this is being written by a good friend, T-Beau.

T-Beau and his better half, Eric are regulars here at MCC.

The Editor

I was surprised and pleased to be in attendance Sunday July 18, when Rev. Brad Wilson delivered his sermon. His main theme was the basic difference between being a Christian and living Christianity. His concern was not for our souls as Christians, but for ourselves in our relationships with others and for our day to day living values.

I found myself with an uplifted spirit and carrying new hope as I listened to this forward looking pastor. He did not condemn the use or enjoyment of material goods, only a misplaced value which placed these things above all else, or the misuse of these things which has been proven damaging to the human body; the ultimate Temple of God.

Rev. Wilson's sermon looked forward to the time when Gay Pride could become Human Pride and labels could be reduced to the Brotherhood of Man. He voiced the hope that if the sharp tongue of the Pharesees could be curbed and the hand of Christian love extended in it's peace; we would all have happier lives.

Rev. Wilson prayed that the Metropolitan Community Church would "....continue to be the Church of the Living God." I, as I am sure do all of us, share that prayer.

Rev. Wilson, visiting from Miami, Florida, was the house guest of Rev. John H[illegible]se and was squired about our fair city by Rev. Ken Jones.

M.C.C. COSTA MESA

MCC Costa Mesa Couples Club held their monthly meeting on Saturday, July 17th at the home of Tom Worby and Jim Hooper in Anaheim. A spaghetti dinner with all the trimmings was prepared by Bob Murphy and Jim Hcoper. There were 10 couples in attendance with some new faces and our beloved pastor, Rev. Harrison was present as usual. We plan to hold our next monthly meeting with a picnic and dance, as our guests, San Diego and the North east Parish will be joining us.

A cordial invitation to all singles of Orange County - Come and join the first meeting of the Singles Club which will be a pot luck dinner to be held on Saturday, July 24th at 8:00 PM at the home of Rich Valenzuela's at 1881 Mitchell St., #2D, in Tustin. For further information you may call Mario Villa 547-4740, Mark Miller 897-1898, or Rev. Harrison 548-5046. All are welcome to come.

We have been blessed with quite a few weddings the past few months and our schedules during the month are quite full.

1st Sunday - Pot Luck Supper after Services.
2nd Saturday - Dance or Social
3rd Saturday - Couples Club
4th Saturday - Singles Club

Our weekly attendance is averaging around 54 each Sunday. As we grow in love for God, our Church grows also.

RICK RESIGNS

MCC Orange County is sorry to announce the resignation of Rick Valenzuela as Social Director for the Church. Rick has done an innumerable amount of things for our Church and had a great deal to do in getting MCC-O.C. started.. He has organized all of our social affairs and was very active in co-ordinating our portion of the Christopher St. West Parade. For all of his time and devotion we wish to THANK HIM. God bless you, Rick!

PASTOR GOES ABROAD

Sunday, July 25th, will be Rev. Harrison's last Sunday with us for four weeks. He will journey to Upsala, Sweden to be reunited with his "other half", Hokan Peterson. He will be sorely missed and we all pray for a safe trip.

Rusty

(Editor's Note: Next week, we hope to have a complete page for Orange County & Costa Mesa Christ Chapel news happenings. It will be on an orange colored page. Look for it!)

FROM THE CHURCH TREASURER

The offering for last Sunday July 18th was $1181.24. This figure includes checks and donations mailed into the Church office during the past week and the loose offering. Our membership pledges are $987.07, but the actual amount received in the envelopes was only $503.67 or 51% of what is pledged. This is not as good as I know we can do. If we strive to meet our financial responsibilities as members of MCC, we could meet our weekly budget of $1050.00 through the envelope system, thus using the loose offering to reduce our present indebtedness and once again start to make improvements on our building.

Let's all make an effort to be more diligent about our tithing.

SOMETHING OF VALUE

Ten years ago a friend of mine, who was a doper, asked me what was wrong with his life. He had wasted his money on drugs, wrecked a few automobiles and was down and out.

I told him to be selfish about himself, enough to make himself worth something to someone else. At the time I was a practicing alcoholic and not able to manage my own life properly. I too, had lost several good jobs, squandered all of my money and was broke. Since then I've become a member of a program for alcoholics. The first thing I learned was, that I had to care enough about myself so that I would be selfish enough to make myself worth something to others.

At "Alcoholics Together" I learned that when alcohol interferred with my everyday living, I had given some control of my life over to alcohol. I also learned that as a practicing alcoholic, I am of no value to myself or to any one else.

If you attend MCC, I hope you don't have to go to the lengths some of us have, before we learned that we couldn't drink like other people. If you have already lost control of your drinking and need a little help you will find many of us like yourself attending Alcoholic meetings. There are three different meetings of "Alcoholics Together" in Los Angeles and Hollywood each week. You can get more information from any of the members on Thursday evening when they gather in the Social Hall of MCC.

Already many homosexuals have found friendships and fellowship at "Alcoholics Together" meetings. The understanding and love we have for one another makes maintaining our sobriety well worth the small effort each of us make.

You are invited to come and be a part of our meeting or just come to listen and observe. There is something of value at every meeting and everyone who attends finds something of value to take away with him.

Signed,
L. Dispennette

We of MCC Publication Department would like to thank all of the wonderful people that have already donated things for our RUMMAGE SALE. We also would like to take the opportunity to remind the rest of our friends that this is the time to clean out those garages, closets, attics and under those beds (Ya, I know where you put that extra stuff) and help us to raise that extra money needed for the many pieces of equipment needed to do a better job for you and for MCC.

Time is running short. Our next rummage sale is August 8th, on Saturday from 1 to 4 PM, so let's all get going. Don't put of off any longer. Bring your stuff to the Publications Office.

The Metropolitan Players are having a special meeting 8:00 PM Friday, July 30 at the home of Hank and Lyle, 7609 Bothwell Road, Reseda (886-7896).

They will be reading and discussing several plays. They will also be discussing future plans for the Little Theatre group. If you are interested in any aspect of theatre , please contact Lyle and get involved in this fine group.

I think everyone that has seen the 3 plays that Lyle Page has directed, have enjoyed them and we are all looking forward to Metropolitan Players next production.

LONG BEACH PARISH

The Long Beach Parish would like to report their last social which included a white elephant sale, dinner and dance was a great success. Last Wednesday, July 14th, a Bible study and business meeting was held at Tino and Steve's home. On Wednesday, July 28, there will be a discussion group at Bill's home at 3564 Brayton St. in Long Beach. Anyone interested is welcome to attend. The meeting is scheduled for 8:00 PM. For any additional information, contact Bill at 424-1552.

Please encourage your friends to participate in our functions as we always welcome new faces.

VALLEY VIEW

Although summer vacations have cut into our ranks, the Valley Parish had a fine turnout Tuesday, July 13.

Guest speaker, Jim Miller,showed slides of his trip to the Holy Land. It was like taking a trip back thru time, seeing the pryamids of Egypt and then traveling up to the Holy City, Jerusalem.

Tony's patio guest house was cool enough to make one forget the heat of the day, as we traveled up to Istanbul with Jim's narration.

Mr. & Mrs. Sommers joined us for the evening, as did Pat Vestal, our Church Treasurer. It's always a joy to have any of our friends join us, and we extend a hearty welcome to all who care to do so. Once again, let us remind you of our meeting on July 27, Tuesday at 7:30 PM.

There will be a special showcase performance by a well-known professional entertainer, and music by our very own Crescendos.

It's a potluck pool party, so bring your swimming togs and a towel and if you'd like to bring something to contribute to the menu, don't be bashful.

Come one and all - bring a friend and it will be an evening you won't want to miss.

SURPRISE ENTERTAINMENT

SOME HARD WORKERS

There are three people here at MCC that I feel ought to be mentioned in this article. They are none other than the three Youth Group Counselors, Mr. George Carr, Mr. Lee Sharp and last but not least, Miss Liz Greco. What a threesome!

I think I'll start with Lee Sharp. Many of you may already be familiar with Lee. Besides being a Youth Group counselor, Lee is also largely responsible for the new altar you see each Sunday or whenever you are here in Church. If you remember the old one, it was, shall we say, misplaced. I remember in the early days here at the Church, when everybody was painting, plastering, wall papering and all those other goodies here at the Church, Lee was hard at work on the altar. I would just like to say, "Lee, your efforts are truly appreciated."

Liz Greco unfortunately is our only girl here at MCC-YG at the present time. But we are working on this. Besides her activities as a youth group counselor, Liz is also a fulltime social-worker (who says our girls don't have big hearts?). I think I've teased Liz several times that I wouldn't mind having her for a social worker. In case some of you women's liberationists are reading, we did have another woman, Liz's lover, Tina, who used to do all the book work, checking and banking for such a wealthy group. (Smile) But it's like they say, only the strong survive. This only illustrates Liz's dedication as counselor of MCC-YG. Keep it up, Liz.

George Carr, who incidently is Lee's lover is our Activity Chairman. He's what you might call the big bad wolf-in weight anyway. I don't know how to describe him because I've never seen anything quite like him before. (Smile) He's blonde, medium in weight or should we say a large build. I think he is the comedian of the three.

Put them all together and what do you get? Three beautiful Christian homosexuals. Keep up the good work. From all your children, we really appreciate and love all of you together and each of you individually.

MORE LACE FROM THE LAVENDER LADIES

The meeting of the Lavender Ladies this past week was a time to remember, for we were all going over the last changes we were to make in the routines that we will be doing in the show we are doing at the Deacons Dinner.

The voting for the Princess of the Month is not yet over and everyone in the club is hoping and wishing that they will be elected and get the first trophy for the Princess of the Month.

We have been discussing all the things that we want to do on the 14th of August, but we will not forget our goals, and that is to help the "Drag Queen", as we are known by the rest of the Gay Community. More of us are trying to be better Christians and instead of just talking about it, we are starting with ourselves and getting to know what we can do to improve ourselves individually, or as a group.

I personally think that the God that made all of us looks into all of our hearts and knows what we are made of, both in character and spirit. If God can do things like this, he surely can see who is praying to Him, whether he or she is wearing pants & shirt, or a skirt and a blouse.

God looks in the heart and sees the good and the bad. He alone will judge me on my day of reckoning.

As Always, Yours in Christ

HELLO THERE!!!

Saturday, the 17th, the MCC Youth Group went to Playa del Rey Beach. We all met at the Church at 11:00, rode caravan style with our cars, got situated, and started for our usual hunt. (?). There were adorable guys and gals on the beach, but Lee, George and Liz wouldn't let us. We had lots of fun. There was food, a weiner roast, water and sun.

We swam most of the time and we ended up sticking sand crabs in each others' pants. Yes, it was a fantastic day. If we had more kids in our Youth Group, we could double the fun. We want you if you are ages from 13 - 20. Bye and God Bless you.

NEWS FROM THE HOLLYWOOD PARISH

This last Tuesday, July 20th, the Hollywood Parish met at the home of Jerry Angus and Ralph Parham. The general topic of discussion was ways that all of us could help the Deacons Closet obtain food for the many persons who come to our Church for help. It was strongly requested that all church members bring one or more cans of food to each and every church function. It is so easy for us to sit back and forget those who are hungry when we have plenty of food to eat at each and every meal.

Other points of interest that were brought up were about the wonderful sermons we heard this last week at the Spiritual Renewal meetings.

During the coffee hour we all turned our thoughts to parties that we all have attended and the good times that we had in Christian fellowship.

The next Hollywood Parish meeting we plan on having will be a "Pool Party" and Bar-B-Q. Please look in next week's news letter for the date and location of this party.

Yours in Christ

WHO'S THE GROOVIEST GUY?

The ADVOCATE's 4th annual Groovy Guy Contest, which shapes up as a spectacular in more ways than one, has been scheduled for the evening o Sat. Aug. 21, in the opulent Universal Ballroom of the LA Sheraton-Universal Hotel.

Twenty-five contestants, described by executive producer and director Bob Barnett as the cream of the West Coast's crop, will compete for the of "grooviest all-around guy."

He emphasized that the nationally known Groovy Guy affair is not a physique contest but rather a careful judging of youthful entrants according to standards of handsomeness, overall appearance - fully clothed & otherwise - and personality as well as on mere beefcake.

The 25 have been chosen from a raft of entrants. For the first time in Groovy Guy's brief history, there will be standby coniestants to replace possible last-minute dropouts.

The Sheraton-Universal location allows for seating of well over 800 persons at 80 tables, for unlimited free parking and for the use of 3 stages various features of the show.

Contestants will mingle with the audience during pre-show dancing and getting-together beginning at 8 PM. Go-Go boys will entertain throughout the evening. Drinks will be dispensed from 5 bars within the ballroom.

A centered presentation stage, well above floor level and using a revolving midpoint, will assure perfect visability of all proceedings from any point of the ballroom.

The Groovy-Quickie Express, one of Universal Studios' tour trams leased for the occasion, will whisk contest patrons between the hotel's parking area and the ballroom entrances in 2 minutes flat, Barnett said.

Tickets for this Pageant and Dance will be sold at the door at $5.00 BUT buy your tickets here at M.C.C. PUBLICATIONS DEPT. OFFICE at $4.50 advance sale price and help us win $50.00 for M.C.C.!!

Barnett also announced that the entire contest proceedings will be filmed for nationwide release. Co-producers for the event are Bob Dupuie and John Charles.

GAY BUYING POWER??

This past week the Los Angeles Times ran an article where the New York police closed several bars because the Mafia owned them. Do you ever wonder where your money goes when you go to many of the establishments in our fair city?

Very seldom do I or my other half go to bars, because many of them offer us nothing for our money. We pay a high price for the meal, the place has no money invested in furnishings, (if it was raided, they wouldn't lose too much in the furnishings)service is usually poor, and most important you receive no protection from Vera Vice.

In the gay establishments I have been working at in the past, you got nothing . You were squeezed dry for the dollar, and you are at the mercy of the police. If the establishments you go to were organized, you would find that the police would quit the amount of harassment, and literally use the night stick on a burglar,murderer,or a robber,instead of using it to clobber some defenseless homosexual looking for companionship.

Add up what you spend in a year going out, and add that up by thirty million -- that is your buying power, The Negro of America found out that they could use this financial power and force changes. Isn't it time we also use this method? I don't mind fighting for my rights,but isn't it easier using the method of selective buying?

We are not sheep that will go quietly to be slaughtered, nor are we stupid enough to continue giving money to people that really dispise us, and vote for the persecution we must endure.

If other homosexual organizations and businesses will not help us, why can't our Church do it? Nothing hurts business more than their wallet.

Next time you are at your favorite watering hole, or some other type of establishment, find out how the owners really feel about us, and ask what he is doing to change the entrapment and the laws. You will probably find they are more interested in getting rich off us and could care less.

Bill Bennett

NEW WELFARE RULINGS HIT SINGLE MALES

For the last six months, the State of California has been lightening the restrictions on the Welfare Department. It has gotten so bad now that it is almost impossible to get aid for most single men. For instance, if you have worked at all in the last thirty days, even a few hours, you are not eligible for aid.

This is putting a tremendous burden on us to help our own people. If we don't do it, no one else will. Everyday we meet new people with big problems that we endeavor to help. However, our resources are very limited. Our biggest problem is Food.

We also need emergency type drugs, medical assistance, and emergency funds for transportation.

If everyone brought just one can of food to Church each week, we would have no problem with food. Everyone can afford something whether it is a 10¢ can of soup or a canned ham. Whatever you can afford, it will be greatly appreciated by the many who are hungry and awaiting your help. If you are financially able, we can sure use all the cash funds we can get for our emergency housing program as well as for the many other programs that we have to pay cash for.

Whatever you can do to help those that are in need, I thank you. I know that the Lord will Bless you tenfold for your generosity.

Deacon Bill Thorne

JOBS ARE ON THE MOVE

Again this week the Lord has blessed us with many jobs for our people. If you need a job or know of someone who needs a job, send them into us and we will try to find them work or something. We have some people who are having a hard time finding a job not because they do not have any skills, but because we just do not have the jobs to match their skills. If you have any job openings or know of any kind of job open anywhere, please call me at the Church office and let us try to fill it.

Deacon Bill Thorne

YOUR SOCIAL DIRECTOR

I want to thank Jay Heckman, for the beautiful work he is doing for the Social Committee. Thanks to him, you are being served some fantastic brunches.He has put in a lot of hours.I have put Jay in charge of the kitchen, and told him to have a Sunday brunch ready every other week. Thanks Jay!

For the past two weeks, I have been asking for cooks, with restaurant experience. I have at present four cooks and could use several more. Anymore volunteers?

Many of you have asked for a menu in advance when we have a brunch. Until now, this has been impossible. We, or rather Jay, makes the rounds of purveyors 2 days before the brunch and purchases the food at greatly reduced prices. So you see, I don't know what will be served before the next brunch myself. However, under consideration for this request, we are going to have southern fried chicken, mashed potatoes and gravy, blak-eyed peas, corn bread, coffee, and iced tea at our next brunch. So plan to eat at Church next week.

I want to say once again, if you feel you cannot join us for brunch after Church, see me during the coffee hour before Sunday service and volunteer your services. I am only asking that you help those of us who are preparing the brunch. We won't overwork you, but a half hour of help would make it easier for us.

The coffee hour is every Sunday Morning at 9:30 till 10:30. Brunch is served on alternate weeks.

Your Social Committee is working on a purchasing committee so that this department will receive the best possible buying value for its dollar, which means greater savings for the Church. More details when things are finalized.

Social Committee Needs: Cooks,people to serve food, someone to organize the cleaning of hall after a brunch, Artists (to work on murals in the Social Hall), 2 organists (to play the organ during brunch); styrofoam cups, paper products, napkins, restaurant type cups and saucers, dishes, plates, flatware (any type knife, fork and spoon),pots and pans (restaurant type, one gallon or larger), refrigerators (large and in perfect working condition, at a very small price) a freezer (same description as above). Also banquet tables, folding chairs, (need to find contact who can purchase at reasonable prices), linen napkins, and tablecloths (type used in restaurants, any color).

Remember our Bar-B-Q on Sunday, Aug.1. The place is the Avenue 60 section of the Arroyo Seco Park, off the Pasadena Freeway. This will take place immediately after services on Sunday . You must purchase tickets ahead of time. Donation is $2.00. A map of this location will be in the next issue of MCC News.

On August 21st (Saturday) at 8:00 PM, we are having an Ice Cream Social and Dance. For a donation of $1.50, you will get to meet some wonderful people, and we will furnish the first two ice cream dishes.Tickets on sale at the door.

Before finishing this week's article, I want to thank you for the support you are giving to the Social functions, and to those of you who are donating the many items that are making this department run more efficiently. Each item donated means that we do not work so hard, and can enjoy the Social function with you.

Thank you,

Bill Bennett

Happy Birthday Rev. Perry

What a wonderful proof of God's love for you — His magnificent gift of the years of your life. Each birthday is a symbol of this gift: the gift of life itself, the gift of time, the gift of years that follow one another like a string of precious jewels.

Scripture tells us: 'This is the day which the Lord hath made; we will rejoice and be glad in it.' How gloriously true of every day and of every year. Congratulations on the most precious gift — another wonderful year!
